"SIM SHALOM"
Julia Davids, Conductor
Sharon Rich Peterson, Piano
Martin Davids, Violin

Michael Isaacson: Sim Shalom
Leonard Bernstein: Simchu Na
Srul Irving Glick: Avinu Malkeinu; Sing Unto the Lord a New Song
Traditional Israeli Folksong: Hashivenu
Elizabeth Alexander: Where There Is Light in the Soul
Eric Whitacre: Five Hebrew Love Songs
Randall Thompson: excerpts from The Peaceable Kingdom

Pairing Christian and Jewish music and texts, this concert explores peace and relationships through sacred and secular love. Canadian composer Srul Irving Glick was shot in a hate crime as he left his synagogue in Toronto.
His indomitable spirit is demonstrated in his music, an outpouring of hope for peace.

The program continues with the lush, beautiful Five Hebrew Love Songs of highly acclaimed American composer Eric Whitacre. With texts written by Whitacre's wife, these lyrical love songs will be accompanied by NSCS pianist Sharon Peterson and violinist Martin Davids.
The concert will conclude with the last two movements of Randall Thompson's powerful Peaceable Kingdom for a cappella chorus.
